

FEB 3 Miss Dior Blooming Bouquet launches today at Sephora

Miss Dior Blooming Bouquet, the latest fragrance by Christian Dior, is available as of today at Sephora. Echoing the creation of the first Dior fragrance - Miss Dior - at the end of the 1940's with Mr. Christian Dior's first fashion show, Miss Dior Blooming Bouquet naturally reflects Raf Simon's Haute Couture at Dior today.

Embodied by Nathalie Portman, Miss Dior Blooming Bouquet is a floral fragrance that combines the Dior's couture spirit with the fresh sophistication of a modern scent: a romantic floral and a declaration of femininity, glamour and joie de vivre.

Made of vegetal wax from the famous city of Grasse on the French riviera (considered the world's capital of perfume), they are different from the traditional paraffin white wax candles, derived from petroleum. Rives Sud Interior candles have a cotton wick, and they come in a glass made by a Belgium glass-blower... Real luxury !

Coming in 4 different scents, the Rives Sud Interior candles are the result of an encounter between Delphine Thierry, a talented and experienced perfume creator ; and Christine Bodino, an interior designer. The constituents combine the sophistication of olfactory harmonies with the ecological requirements of plant-based wax. And the fragrances are simply divine !
